589	Pair of Very Rare Palace Size Barbotine Pottery Majolica Floral Vases, Circa 1880. Rare Palace Size, with bronze ormolu stands and rims and hinged handles embossed in the Chinese taste. Explosive floral and grape cluster decorations applied and painted by hand, each individual vase standing an impressive 26" H x 12" D at their widest point these vases are startling in their creativity, design, execution and form. The bronze attached stands have four oriental inspired feet. From a local estate. Condition is consistent with their age and use. Some losses to the tips of flowers, one bronze handle has been reattached, as well as one rim reattached. I cannot find any missing flower petals, but these are extraordinary to examine and be close to. We are selling them as is/as found. Under the creative direction of Felix Bracquemond between the years of 1875 and 1882, Haviland &amp; Co produced some of the world's most amazing Barbotine terra cotta pottery ever seen. These large vases are totally hand painted. Sculpted with clay, the slip and applied flowers are in high relief. Although believed to be by Haviland, these could also be from the workshop of Theodore LeFront (1835-1893) or Theodore LeFront began working with faience and porcelain in an atelier in Fontainebleau in 1860. This pair of vases either by Haviland or Theodore LeFront will be a wonderful addition to any collection. Buyer pick up might be considered as these will be difficult but not impossible to		 Monumental Oriental Vases with Bronze Ormolu and Applied Relief Floral, Grapes and Vines ca. 1880

593	Rare Mid-19th Century Sheridan Double Top Sugar Chest. From a local Southern family comes this exceedingly fine double top and double section sugar chest with two over two drawers, fine turned legs on a ball and pencil shaped foot. There are key holes for original locks but some of them are gone, the drawers are dovetailed and hand planed bottoms, the drawers fit tight. The double lid, with replacement hinges (evidence of strap hinges on the original back) and a replacement hinge support board (at the very top of the original old back boards), open to reveal what once was a double compartment sugar chest, each lid having a separate lock. There is some original finish here and there, some parts of it do look refinished, although it is an old finish and nothing recent. There is inlay at each chamfered corner of probably walnut. The drawers have old oval pulls on them, probably not original but they look good. The key holes have been filled in and inlaid with some newer wood. Otherwise, a very fine and rare example of a sugar chest not to be found very often. 34" W x 35-1/2" H x 20-3/4" D. Some losses due to use and age, very good condition. Estimate: $2,000 to $4,000
594	18-19 C Antique Chinese Porcelain Stacking Tiffin Bowls with Lid. This is an incredibly beautiful delicately hand painted poly-chrome 4 piece stacking bowl set with lid. All pieces have been very finely decorated with flowers and butterflies. The colors are vibrant and the enamels are in remarkable condition for an antique from any age period. While the set is not marked the colors used in the enamels are those used during the Qing Dynasty. Please use your knowledge of these periods to make your decision to purchase. The lid has a handmade wire ring on top. Each stack unit has a handle on each side, matching the material of the ring on top. The unglazed bottom edge of each piece show the appropriate age discoloration. And the white glaze surfaces possess the typical occlusions for the periods suggested. The entire unit stands 11-1/2" H x 8-1/4" D (Includes the wooden stand). No major chips but there is sure to be wear appropriate to age and use. Auction Estimate $200 - $400

601	Old Paris Vase presented as Lamp superb mid-19th Century "Old Paris" vase, circa. 1850. The vase itself is very large, but overall the lamp measures 27" tall, and 8 1/2" wide. The vase is completely hand-painted, and (overall) features different panels depicting a harbor scene interspersed with panels of floral splashes. The painting on the vase is extraordinary! The piece is heavily accented in hand-painted gold decoration both at the top and the base. The lamp has been wired after it was created. The base is of a gilded metal, and the lamp weighs several pounds, as the porcelain and fittings are heavy. The lamp is in very good condition, and more than likely has scratches, or wear to the paint, and wear to the gilding in keeping with its age and use. 27" H (to top of harp - including the metal stand) x 8-1/2" D. Auction Estimate $200-$400
