Saturday October 10th at 10 a.m.

711 Finsbury Road, Winston-Salem, NC 27104

Estate of Lenwood and Doris Poindexter Ammons (Both Deceased)

Doris Poindexter Ammons and Lenwood Ammons were married for 62 years before she passed in November 2013. Mr. Ammons was 101 when he followed her earlier this year.

A graduate of East Bend High School, Mr. Ammons served in World War II in the 41st Tank Battalion, 11th Armored Division under Gen. George Patton, seeing action throughout the European Theater.

As longtime owner of Ammons Esso Service Center on Reynolda Road, Mr. Ammons was known for his excellent customer service.

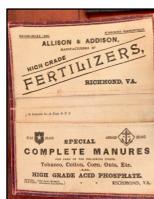

Mrs. Ammons, a Winston-Salem native and a Hanes High School graduate, received her teaching degree from High Point College, where she was Miss High Point College in her senior year. Described as creative with a beautiful smile, Mrs. Ammons taught in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County school system for 35 years.

Both were active in First Baptist Church, in Meals-on-Wheels, and traveled extensively. They enjoyed collecting and filled their attic with antiques and local memorabilia.
