Howard Hanna Consumer Guide to Agency Relationships

Smythe, Cramer Co (dba Howard Hanna) and all other Ohio real estate brokerages are required by Ohio law to provide you with certain information about how real estate agents work and to have you acknowledge receipt of this information. THIS IS NOT A CONTRACT AND DOES NOT OBLIGATE YOU TO HOWARD HANNA IN ANY WAY.

We are pleased that you have selected us to help you with your real estate needs. Whether you are selling, buying, or leasing real estate, Howard Hanna will provide you with the highest standards of expertise and assistance.

Because buying or selling a home may be your largest financial transaction, it is important to understand the roles of the agents and brokers with whom you will be working. The information below explains how brokerages and agents work for buyers and sellers in real estate transactions. For more information on agency law in Ohio, you also may contact the Ohio Division of Real Estate and Professional Licensing at (614) 466-4100 or at www.com.state.oh.us.

Seller Agency: Most sellers choose to list their homes for sale with a real estate brokerage. When they do so, they sign a listing agreement that authorizes the brokerage and the listing agent to represent their interests. As such, the brokerage and listing agent must: follow the seller's lawful instructions, be loyal to the seller, promote the seller's best interests, disclose material facts to the seller, maintain confidential information, act with reasonable skill and care, and account for any money that they handle in the transaction. Howard Hanna does not offer subagency, which means that it does not authorize any agents to act on a seller's behalf unless the seller specifically appoints that agent. Typically, part of the listing compensation will be shared (normally through a split of a percentage of the purchase price) with the brokerage for the buyer's agent that successfully produced the buyer. Such sharing of listing compensation does not modify or lessen the listing agent's obligations owed to the seller.

Buyer Agency: Buyers typically choose to work with a real estate agent. Buyers often want to be represented in the transaction as well. This is known as buyer agency. A brokerage and an agent that agree to represent a buyer must follow the buyer's lawful instructions, be loyal to the buyer, promote the buyer's best interests, disclose material facts to the buyer, maintain confidential information, and account for any money that they handle in the transaction. Buyers are advised that sellers and their agents are not obligated to keep confidential the existence, terms or conditions of a buyer's offer. Buyer agents are compensated for their services, often in large part by sharing in the listing compensation paid by the seller. Any such sharing of compensation does not modify or lessen the buyer agent's obligations to the buyer.

Disclaimer: Howard Hanna and its agents cannot and do not (a) review all public records relating to properties that are listed or sold by them; or (b) investigate property information contained in prior listing and/or sales files, either within the company or other brokerages. Buyers are advised to investigate the physical condition of the property and all public records to determine its condition and suitability before purchasing it.

Dual Agency: Occasionally the same agent and brokerage that represent the seller also represent the buyer in a transaction. This is referred to as dual agency. When a brokerage and its agents become "dual agents," they must maintain a neutral position in the transaction. They may not advocate the position of one client over the other client, nor disclose any confidential information to the other party without written consent.

In-Company Split Agency: On occasion, the buyer and seller will each be represented by two different agents from the same brokerage. In this case, each agent will represent the best interests of their respective clients. When this occurs, the brokerage will be considered a dual agent. As a dual agent, the brokerage and its managers will maintain a neutral position and cannot advocate the position of one client over another. The brokerage also will protect the confidential information of both parties.

Working with Howard Hanna: Howard Hanna represents both buyers and sellers. Therefore, it is possible for one agent to represent a buyer who wishes to purchase property listed with another Howard Hanna agent (in-company split agency). If this occurs, then each agent will represent her or his own client, but Howard Hanna and its managers will act as dual agents. This means that the brokerage and its managers will maintain a neutral position and not take any action that favors one client over the other. Howard Hanna will supervise both agents to ensure that their respective clients are being represented and will protect each party's confidential information.

If the buyer and seller are represented by the same agent, then that agent and Howard Hanna will act as dual agents, but only if both parties agree. As dual agents, they will treat both parties honestly, prepare and present offers at the parties' direction, and help the parties to understand their contractual obligations. They will not, however, disclose any confidential information that would place one party at an advantage over the other, or advocate or negotiate to the detriment of either party.

If dual agency occurs, then you will be asked to consent to it in writing. If you do not agree to dual agency, then you may ask for another agent in Howard Hanna to represent you, or you may seek representation from an attorney or another brokerage. As a buyer, you may choose to represent yourself on properties that Howard Hanna has listed. In this case, Howard Hanna will represent the seller and you would represent your own best interests. However, the listing agent will still be able to provide you with non-confidential information, prepare and present offers at your direction and assist you in the financing and closing process. Because the listing agent has a duty of full disclosure to the seller, you should not share any information with the listing agent that you would not want the seller to know. A Howard Hanna licensee who holds an open house on behalf of a Howard Hanna seller's listing agent will be considered a "host" and not the seller's agent unless it is agreed to in writing or otherwise required by law.

Working with Other Brokerages: When Howard Hanna lists a property for sale, it cooperates with and offers to share some of the listing compensation with other brokerages that represent buyers. Howard Hanna reserves the right, in some instances, to vary the compensation that it offers to other brokerages. As a seller, you should understand that Howard Hanna's sharing of a fee with the brokerage representing the buyer does not mean that you will be represented by that brokerage. Instead, the buyer's brokerage and agent will be obligated to advance the buyer's interests and Howard Hanna will represent your interests. When acting as a buyer's agent, Howard Hanna also accepts compensation offered by the listing broker. If the property is not listed by another broker, or the listing broker does not offer compensation, then Howard Hanna will attempt to negotiate for a Seller-paid fee.

Compensation for Brokerage Services: If you are a seller represented by Howard Hanna, at closing you will pay listing compensation as described in your Purchase Agreement and/or Exclusive Right To Sell Agreement. This compensation typically consists of both a Broker flat fee ($335.00) and a percentage of the purchase price. The percentage component is typically split with the buyer's broker and the remainder of that shared with your individual agent; the flat fee amount is retained by Howard Hanna. Both components are for all the general brokerage services Howard Hanna has available and/or provides to you as the seller, including any sharing of compensation with the buyer's brokerage. If you are a buyer represented by Howard Hanna, you will pay buyer broker compensation as described in your Purchase Agreement and/or any Exclusive Buyer Agreement you have with Howard Hanna. The compensation for buyer broker services typically consists of both a Broker flat fee ($335.00) and a percentage of the purchase price. Typically, the percentage component is covered when Howard Hanna shares in the listing compensation paid by the seller, with such share being split with your individual agent, while the flat fee amount is paid by you as buyer and retained by Howard Hanna. Both components are for all the general brokerage services Howard Hanna has available and/or provides to you as a buyer. If you as buyer wished to proceed in a transaction where there was no sharing of listing compensation, then you could be asked to pay both the flat fee and a percentage of the purchase price for services to rendered to you; however, because it is Howard Hanna's policy to accept a share of the listing compensation, most buyers pay only the flat fee for their buyer services.

Fair Housing Statement: It is illegal, pursuant to the Ohio Fair Housing Law, division (H) of Section 4112.02 of the Revised Code and the Federal Fair Housing Law, 42 U.S.C. 3601, as amended, to refuse to sell, transfer, assign, rent, lease, sublease, or finance housing accommodations, refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of housing accommodations, or otherwise deny or make unavailable housing accommodations because of race, color, religion, sex, familial status as defined in Section 4112.01 of the Revised Code, ancestry, military status as defined in that section, disability as defined in that section, or national origin, or to so discriminate in advertising the sale or rental of housing, in the financing of housing, or in the provision of real estate brokerage services. It is also illegal, for profit, to induce or attempt to induce a person to sell or rent a dwelling by representations regarding the entry into the neighborhood of a person or persons belonging to one of the protected classes.

We hope that you find this information helpful as you begin your real estate transaction. When you are ready to enter into a transaction, you will be given an Agency Disclosure Statement that specifically identifies the role of the agents and brokerage(s). Please ask questions if there is anything that you do not understand.

Because it is important that you have this information, Ohio law requires that we ask you to acknowledge receipt of this Consumer Guide. Your "Acknowledgment of Receipt" of this Consumer Guide is not a contract and does not obligate you to Howard Hanna in any way.

CONSUMER GUIDE TO AGENCY RELATIONSHIPS

We are pleased you have selected Auction Ohio to help you with your real estate needs. Whether you are selling, buying or leasing real estate, our company can provide you with expertise and assistance. Because this may be the largest financial transaction you will enter into, it is important to understand the role of agents and brokers with whom you are working. On these pages is information explaining the various services Auction Ohio can offer and their options for working with you.

Representing Sellers

Most sellers of real estate choose to list their home for sale with a real estate brokerage. When they do so, they sign a listing agreement that authorizes the brokerage and listing agent to represent their interests. As the seller's agent, the brokerage and listing agent must: follow a seller's lawful instructions, be loyal to the seller, promote the seller's best interests, disclose material facts to the seller, maintain confidential information, act with reasonable skill and care, and account for any money they handle in the transaction. NOTE: When real estate is being sold at auction, Auction Ohio will represent only the seller.

Representing Buyers

When purchasing real estate, buyers usually choose to work with a real estate agent as well. Often the buyers want to be represented in the transaction. This is referred to as buyer's agency. A brokerage and agent that agree to represent a buyer's interest in a transaction must: follow the buyer's lawful instructions, be loyal to the buyer, promote the buyer's best interests, disclose material facts to the buyer, maintain confidential information, and account for any money they handle in the transaction.

Dual Agency

Occasionally, the same agent and brokerage that represent the seller also represent the buyer. This is referred to as dual agency. When a brokerage and its agents become "dual agents," they must maintain a neutral position between the buyer and the seller. They may not advocate the position of one client over the best interests of the other client, or disclose any personal or confidential information to the other party without written consent.

Representing Both the Buyer & Seller

On occasion, the buyer and seller will each be represented by two different agents from the same brokerage. In this case, the agents may each represent the best interest of their respective clients. Or, depending on company policy, the agents may both act as dual agents and remain neutral in the transaction. When either of the above occurs, the brokerage will be considered a dual agent. As a dual agent, the brokerage and its managers will maintain a neutral position and cannot advocate for the position of one client over another. The brokerage will also protect the confidentiality of all parties.

Subagency

Auction Ohio does not act as a subagent or allow other brokerages to act as a subagent for our seller.

Brokerage Cooperation

Auction Ohio will cooperate with other brokerages on an equal and consistent basis. This means the brokerage and its agents will make listings available to other brokerages to show, provide information that is not confidential, and present all offers written by other brokerages in a timely and objective manner. A buyer's broker may be compensated by a seller through Auction Ohio's offer of compensation, unless specifically requested otherwise by the seller, even though the buyer's brokerage does represent the buyer's interests. Alternatively, a buyer's broker may be compensated directly by the buyer pursuant to an agreement between buyer and buyer's broker. Auction Ohio reserves the right, in some instances, to vary compensation offered through marketing services. Auction Ohio may accept compensation from listing brokers although Auction Ohio represents only the seller. Auction Ohio will not offer compensation to or cooperate with subagents.

DUAL AGENCY

Ohio law permits a real estate agent and brokerage to represent both the seller and buyer in a real estate transaction as long as this is disclosed to both parties and they both agree. This is known as dual agency. As a dual agent, a real estate agent and brokerage represent two clients whose interests are, or at times could be, different or adverse. For this reason, the dual agent(s) may not be able to advocate on behalf of the client to the same extent the agent may have if the agent represented only one client.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall:

- Treat both clients honestly;
- Disclose latent (not readily observable) material defects to the purchaser, if known by the agent(s) or brokerage;
- Provide information regarding lenders, inspectors and other professionals, if requested;
- Provide market information available from a property listing service or public records, if requested;
- Prepare and present all offers and counteroffers at the direction of the parties;
- Assist both parties in completing the steps necessary to fulfill the terms of any contract, if requested.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall not:

- Disclose information that is confidential, or that would have an adverse effect on one party's position in the transaction, unless such disclosure is authorized by the client or required by law;
- Advocate or negotiate on behalf of either the buyer or seller;
- Suggest or recommend specific terms, including price, or disclose the terms or price a buyer is willing to offer or that a seller is willing to accept;
- Engage in conduct that is contrary to the instructions of either party and may not act in a biased manner on behalf of one party.

Compensation: Unless agreed otherwise, the brokerage will be compensated per the agency agreement.

Management Level Licensees: Generally, the principal broker and managers in a brokerage also represent the interests of any buyer or seller represented by an agent affiliated with that brokerage. Therefore, if both buyer and seller are represented by agents in the same brokerage, the principal broker and manager are dual agents. There are two exceptions to this. The first is where the principal broker or manager is personally representing one of the parties. The second is where the principal broker or manager is selling or buying his own real estate. These exceptions only apply if there is another principal broker or manager to supervise the other agent involved in the transaction.

Responsibilities of the Parties: The duties of the agent and brokerage in a real estate transaction do not relieve the buyer and seller from the responsibility to protect their own interests. The buyer and seller are advised to carefully read all agreements to assure that they adequately express their understanding of the transaction. The agent and brokerage are qualified to advise on real estate matters. IF LEGAL OR TAX ADVICE IS DESIRED, YOU SHOULD CONSULT THE APPROPRIATE PROFESSIONAL.

Consent: By signing on the reverse side, you acknowledge that you have read and understand this form and are giving your voluntary, informed consent to the agency relationship disclosed. If you do not agree to the agent(s) and/or brokerage acting as a dual agent, you are not required to consent to this agreement and you may either request a separate agent in the brokerage to be appointed to represent your interests or you may terminate your agency relationship and obtain representation from another brokerage.

Any questions regarding the role or responsibilities of the brokerage or its agents should be directed to: attorney or to:

Every Buyer of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified that such property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning.

Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage including learning disability, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Lead poisoning also poses a particular risk to pregnant women. The Seller of any interest in residential real property is required to provide the Buyer with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or inspections in the Seller's possession and notify the Buyer of any known lead-based paint hazards. A risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards is recommended prior to purchase.

The execution of this Contract will serve as Buyer's acknowledgement it has been given reasonable opportunity to conduct its own inspections. Further, Buyer waives any further right to inspect.

In the event Seller has provided any home inspection report in addition to the Real Property Disclosure Form, BUYER UNDERSTANDS AND ACKNOWLEDGES IT IS FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY AND IS NOT A WARRANTY OF ANY KIND BY THE SELLER OR BY ANY AGENT OR SUBAGENT REPRESENTING THE SELLER. ANY INSPECTION REPORT PROVIDED BY THE SELLER IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR ANY INSPECTIONS AND THE BUYER IS ENCOURAGED TO

HAVE OBTAINED THEIR OWN PROFESSIONAL INSPECTIONS PRIOR TO THE EXECUTION OF THIS CONTRACT.

4.5 Condominium or Homeowners Association: If the premises is a condominium unit governed by a Condominium Association, or is located within a community governed by a Homeowners' Association, it will be Buyer's responsibility to do their due diligence prior to the auction.

5. Warranties:

5.1 There are no warranties as the real estate sells 'AS-IS'. As the Buyer previously had the opportunity to inspect the Property, this contract is not subject to the buyer's satisfaction with the results of any inspection(s). If Buyer is not satisfied with the condition of the property do not sign this contract.

6. Deed:

- 6.1 Seller shall convey to the Buyer marketable title in fee simple by transferable and recordable general warranty deed, with release of dower, if any, or fiduciary deed, as appropriate, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances not excepted by this contract, and except the following:

7.2 Seller shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to Buyer or Buyer's Broker, a copy of the Commitment referenced in Paragraph 7.1 above no later than 15 calendar days prior to the date of closing pursuant to this agreement. In the event that the cure of an objection will subject the Seller to additional expense. Seller shall have the option to either cure the objection at Seller's expense or to terminate the Contract by delivering a written Notice of Termination to the Buyer or Buyer's Broker. Upon termination, the earnest money deposit shall be returned to the Buyer pursuant to paragraph 10. Buyer's failure to object as permitted herein constitutes a waiver of Buyer's right to object.

Seller shall pay all other fees that are charged in connection with the sale or transfer of the premises, including without limitation all transfer, processing, expediting, delivery, statement or management company fees.

Such notice must include all pertinent information regarding insurance policies and claims covering the premises that has been damaged or destroyed, including the amount of any applicable policy deduction. The written notice shall be delivered within 2 calendar days from the date of the discovery of the damage or destruction. Upon receipt of such notice, the Buyer may:

- 9.4 Failure by the Seller to provide the required written notice to the Buyer and/or Buyer's Broker shall result in the Buyer, upon discovery of the damage or destruction before closing, having all rights set forth in paragraph 9.2.
